08/02/2018 – OSHA Proposes to Reduce Recordkeeping Rules

The Occupational Safety & Health Administration is proposing to amend recordkeeping regulations for establishments with 250 or more employees by no longer requiring the submission of Forms 300 & 301. Comments are due September 28. This proposed rule would amend OSHA's recordkeeping regulation by rescinding the requirement for establishments with 250 or more employees to electronically submit information from OSHA Forms 300 and 301. These establishments will continue to be required to submit information from their Form 300A summaries. OSHA is amending its recordkeeping regulations to protect sensitive worker information from potential disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). For details see, Notice: 83 FR 36494 (07/30/18), Agency Docket No. OSHA-2013-0023; Document No. 2018-16059.

You may submit comments electronically at <https://www.regulations.gov/>, which is the federal e-rulemaking portal. All submissions must include the docket number (Docket No. OSHA-2013-0023) or the RIN (RIN 1218-AD17) for this rulemaking.
